

How this handbook works

This is the Fluuff organization-wide handbook. It is intended to provide all kinds of information to all members of staff, including

- Documenting how we work at fluuff and where to go for info, initiatives, problems, ...
- Giving staff from another department info on what they can contact you for, and how to do so.
- Documenting things within a department.

How this handbook is structured

This handbook is composed of 'books'. you are currently in the 'Fluuff general handbook' book.

You are currently reading a book. The bar up top and on the side lets you navigate within this book.

You can find other book, and shelves, by clicking the 'Shelves' and 'Books' buttons in the big blue menu bar up top.

Books

There's books for

- Individual departments. This can be one or more books for one department depending on how they structure things.
- Cross-department or Fluuff-wide topics. This book is an example.

Shelves

Multiple books can be kept in a shelf. This is to outline broad categories, like a shelf containing all department books.

Where should I go next?

If you are a new staff member at Fluuff, this page was a great start. Keep browsing through this book, like the Your first day in Fluuff page.

After that, you can browse other books and shelves by clicking the 'Shelves' or 'Books' buttons in the blue menu on top.
